WOMEN IN SPORT IS RISING

Following the success of the UEFA Women's EURO 2022, women's sport and in particular, women's football is finally starting to achieve the recognition it so rightly deserves, however it still has a long way to go in terms of being on a level playing field with men's football.

One of the issues facing female football players is agency representation and securing the best deals and contracts early on. In recent years, there have been a number of groups looking to change this including Women in Football and Women In Sport, both aiming to bridge the gap and provide equal opportunities in sport, but so much more needs to be done.

“AS A FEMALE PLAYER MYSELF, I HAVE WITNESSED FIRSTHAND THE SIGNIFICANT GAP BETWEEN MEN’S AND WOMEN’S FOOTBALL AND HOW MUCH MORE NEEDS TO BE DONE TO ENSURE EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES. IT’S BEEN SO WONDERFUL IN RECENT YEARS TO SEE WOMEN’S FOOTBALL GAINING MORE RECOGNITION, HOWEVER THERE IS SUCH A LONG WAY TO GO AND WE NEED TO KEEP THE MOMENTUM GOING.”
